The ceremony took place on the opening day of the Alliance's Quadrennial Convention, being held in Washington for the first time.

The multi-color postal card, third in a series honoring heroes of the American Revolution, will be issued October 11th at Savannah, Georgia, during a reenactment of the Battle of Savannah, where Pulaski was fatally wounded in 1779.

The designer of the General Pulaski postal card is David Blossom, of Weston, Connecticut who also designed the Molly Pitcher and George Rogers Clark cards issued previously.

The card is being printed by the offset process at the Gov-

IS THE REPRINT OF THE 1869 ENVELOPE OF THE POLISH KINGDOM No. 3 AN ESSAY OR PROOF?

By ST. J. ŻÓLKIEWSKI, AIJP, Warsaw

In the May 1978 issue of the Polonus Bulletin (No. 363), James Mazepa was trying to prove that the re-print (Photo 1) of the 1869 envelope of the Kingdom of Poland is an Essay or Proof of No. 3 envelope issued in 1859.

His attitude was backed to a certain extent by M.A. Bojanowicz in the Nov. 1978 issue (No. 368) Polonus Bulletin. It seems to me that all speculations on this subject are unnecessary, because Polish philatelists responsible for the cataloging of envelopes of the Kingdom of Poland from 1859 to 1860 were living in the period when this question was very topical: 1) Samuel Koprowski, who died about 1908, 2) Colonel Włodzimierz Polanski, 1878-1944, and 3) Włodzimierz Rachmanow, 1886-1968. When cataloging the mentioned envelopes, they were in complete agreement and upheld the point of 4) S. Koprowski, who was writing about it at the end of the 19th Century:

"Because of the demand from the foreign stamp dealers, dispositions were given in 1869 to produce the (reprint) envelopes which differ from the genuine ones, as they were manufactured from completely whiter paper. The circular stamp is of the first type 5) and can be found in the top left corner. The signature of the inspector on the envelope flap is missing."

Ordered reprints were not prepared from the No. 1 or No. 2 envelopes, because the stamp impressions on them were heraldically wrong. The Arms of the Polish Kingdom (Photo 2) most probably were destroyed, leaving only the die (stamp) of the Arms of the Polish Kingdom of the 1858 pattern, which was used in preparation of the reprint under discussion, issued exclusively for the stamp trade. This is the reason why there are no envelopes known from the ordinary postal circulation.
