POLONICA POSTOFFICES U.S.A.

By Dr. Jozef Kuderevicz

The manifestations of attachment to the "Old Country", as Americans of Polish origin call Poland, are cherished in the national memory — namely by giving Polish names to geographic places as streets, settlements, towns, counties, roads or mountains. Some of Polish sounding names were given by Americans without any Polish participation: a typical example is a small town in Mississippi, Kosciuszko, or in some cases, original Indian names, Polacca, Colo. The total of circa 300 Polish sounding names is located on the map of the United States and Canada.

Hundreds of farmers settled around Winona, Minn., Union, Mo., Panna Maria, Texas, Parisville, Mich., Waukegan, Ill., Radom, Ill., Tarnow, Nebr., and Stevens Point, Wisc. In industrial centers such as New York, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Buffalo, Cleveland, Toledo, Detroit, Chicago, Minneapolis, Los Angeles and San Francisco, the population of Americans of Polish origin is reaching 10,000,000 according to the latest statistical data.

Among these are assembly line workers and engineers, housewives and scientists, doctors, priests, teachers and artists, all testifying to the American success story.

The abundance of these Polish names affords an excellent opportunity to the topical collectors of Polonica. My deep interest in this topic led me to obtain cancellations from all Polish named postoffices in the United States. All the names, states and zip code numbers were found in the latest edition of the postoffice directory. Following is a listing of these postoffices:

POLONICA FROM TEXAS

By Stefan Czarniecki

Panna Maria, Texas is justly proud of being the oldest purely Polish settlement in the U.S. It was selected by President Lyndon B. Johnson to be the caretaker of the Our Lady of Częstochowa mosaic presented as a gift to the President by its creator, artist Jan Krantz.

One of the two types of cancellations used on October 23, 1966 at Panna Maria, Texas.

The presentation was made on Sunday, October 23, 1966. The ceremonies of the day included a Marian Procession with the mosaic to the site of the historic oak tree where the Polish pilgrims offered Holy Mass on Christmas Eve, 1854. At 10 a.m. a Mass was celebrated by the Most Rev. Archbishop Robert E. Lucey of San Antonio, Texas followed by the enthronement of the mosaic in the sanctuary of the Immaculate Conception Church.

The afternoon program included the historical Polish Millennium Dedication.

Lucy Johnson Nugent, with her husband, represented the President at the morning services. Deputy Asst. Secretary of State Michael Cieplinski, and U.S. Commissioner of Immigration, Raymond Ferrell represented and spoke on behalf of the President during the afternoon program. Governor John Connally, representing the State of Texas, presented a historical certificate to Rev. Anthony Matula, Pastor of Immaculate Conception Church, and Felix Snoga, Postmaster of Panna Maria.

Topical philatelists around the world compiling material of Poland's Millennium or Religion on stamps, are grateful to the Postmaster, Felix V. Snoga, who used two types of cancellations on various philatelic mail which came to his postoffice for the postmark of the day of the Texas celebrations of Poland's Millennium.
