SPACE EXHIBITS FEATURED AT POLPEX 1965

POLPEX 1965, which honored Nicolaus Copernicus and the Space Age, featured many space collections. For the first time at a Polpex, special Space Awards were given. Alfred Szebel received the First Space Award for his U.S.A. Rocket Mail and Ludwik Pieczara received the Second Space Award for Project Telstar.

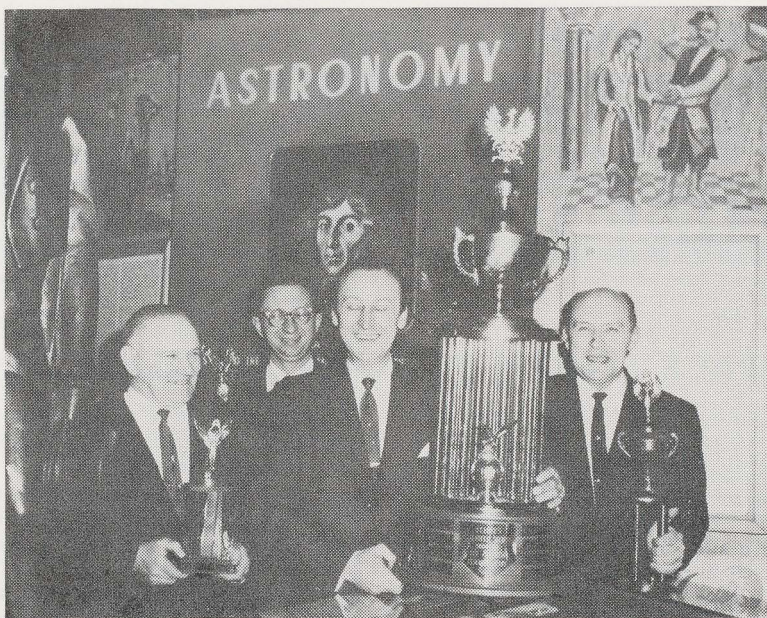

In the Court of Honor visitors could see selected material from an outstanding collection of Rocket Mail, First Tests and Experimentals belonging to the late Dr. Matthew E. Uznanski.

Another popular exhibit was that of Zdzislaw Wagrowski — Nicolaus Copernicus—which received the First Award trophy.

Strzelecki, Polpex Chairman; Miss Irene Szymczak, Queen of the Polish Mountaineers; and Josef Bendkowski, President.

The best Poland exhibit as selected by the judges was Roman Strzelecki's Polish Postal Cards, which merited the Polonus Grand Award trophy. The Kozakiewicz Research Award went to Zbigniew Wlodarski of London, for his Poznan Issue of 1919. The Uznanski Historical Award was given to Lester Jankowski for his Jozef Pilsudski collection.

The Second Award Trophy was presented to Alfred Szebel for his philatelic story of pioneer flights. The Third Award was received by Zdzislaw Wagrowski for his Poland First Flights.

The Best Topical Award went to Lester Jankowski for Ignacy Jan Paderewski. The Novice Award was given to Marian Kalawski for his Woldenberg P.O.W. Camp Post.

The Polonus Achievement Trophy was presented posthumously to Jack Domar who passed away last January, for his service to Polonus on the Experts Committee and for his contributions to the Polonus Bulletin. Jack served as editor for many years and then as writer of the New Issues column.

In its exhibit of Copernicus material the Polish Museum displayed a replica of the oldest globe of the world, made in 1508, during the time of Copernicus. The original globe is at the Jagiellonian University in Cracow. America is shown on the globe as an island named "Isabella."

The awards were presented on Saturday night, March 6th, by Lester Jankowski at the beebea. A successful beebea was possible because of the efforts of the Beebea Chairman, John Bor. The Polish sausage was donated by Dr. Leon P. Kozakiewicz. Ponczki and cakes were baked and donated by Mrs. Josef Bendkowski and Mrs. Chester Schafer.

The striking and beautiful souvenir sheet was the work of Myron Steczynski who also contributed a philatelic and historical article on Copernicus.

Other Copernicus articles were submitted by Roman*Strzelecki and Stefan Kochanski.

A most difficult job at a Polpex is that of the Frames & Easels Chairman which this year was handled by Thomas Tenczar who did it well.

President Josef Bendkowski (pointing) explains Copernicus material displayed by the Polish Museum at Polpex. Miss Irene Szymczak and Polpex Director, Roman H. Strzelecki, look on. (Frank Las Photo)

Credit for the ads and patrons appearing in the program catalog goes to Ads and Patrons Chairman Stanley Kucharz with assistance from Stefan Kochanski and Walter Szymlek.

The bourse, always handled by Roman Reinowski, is always successful. Entries were handled by Jos. Z. Rycaj and publicity by Chester Schafer and Roman Strzelecki.

Junior member Barbara Strzelecki and Chester Mikucki, Jr. very capably managed the Sales Table.

POLPEX 1965 was a success because of its Chairman, Roman Strzelecki. Roman was saddled with the job at the last minute and for the short time he had to work in, he did wonders.
